SPORTING EDITOR'S COLUMN.

Will you kindly publish in your sporting column how I can get information regarding the joining of the following...

Was the rule ever seven balls and four strikes in the league clubs, and when, if ever? Yours truly, C. L. Yes; yours ago.

To decide a bet would you please decide the following: A bet that Keeler, of the New York Americans, receives a larger salary than Matthews, of the Giants...

To decide a wager kindly let me know through your columns from what club Arthur Daykin came to the New York Nationals...

To decide a bet, can you tell me through the sporting columns of the Evening World which club had the largest attendance for the season of 1905?

Kindly inform me in your paper of how many games were played in the world's championship series...

Seven. Five games were played. Matthews pitched three.

Please state in your column of The Evening World how old Matthew of the New York baseball club, acquire the name of "Iron Horse"...

He is an Iron worker. Resides in Chicago. Can stand strain of continuous pitching.

As a reader of The Evening World I would like to know if you would kindly state in your column...

No record was kept. My impression is that Boston was more practice games than Brooklyn.

Being a constant reader of your valuable newspaper I want to know...

New York, 10; Boston, 1. VINCENT TRENOR.

SLOSSON MATCHED WITH GEO. SUTTON

Will Meet in This City in October for the 18.2 Billiard Championship.

George F. Slosson of New York, and George Sutton of Chicago, by an agreement reached this afternoon...

In the recent tournament Slosson won the event. Sutton, who missed a point, challenged the winner...

Slosson today denied a statement in a morning paper to the effect that he would ignore the challenge...

President Hagerman of the New York Billiard Association...
